

BMoCA

Martha Russo: coalescere

Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art
Spring 2016 exhibition
March 31-June 12

Opening reception
Thursday, March 31
5:30pm member preview
6:30-9pm public reception

coalescere brings together 25 years of work by sculptor and installation artist Martha Russo. Exploring the progression of Russo's work, the exhibition highlights sculptural pieces created over the course of her artistic practice as well as a series of new works and large-scale, site-specific installations.

Please join BMoCA and Russo as we celebrate the opening of the artist's first solo museum exhibition.

Click here for more information about the exhibition. For press inquiries, please contact BMoCA's Marketing Manager, Brock Masterson at brock@bmoca.org.

Image: (above) Martha Russo, lightness of being (settled), 2016 (detail). porcelain casting slip. 8ft x 4ft. Photo by Wes Magyar. (below) Martha Russo, nomos, 2007 (detail). porcelain. 3ft x 2ft. Photo by Oren Eckhaus. Both images, Courtesy of Claudia Stone Gallery, NYC; Goodwin Fine Art, Denver, CO; and the artist.

Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art

1750 13th Street
Boulder, CO 80302
303.443.2122